NEWS RELEASE

Thebe Exhibitions and Projects Group acquires Gauteng Motor Show & incorporates Atomic Junkies Adrenalin Sports Fest

TEPG adds another amazing and successful show to the family – the Gauteng Motor Show (GMS).

The Annual Gauteng Motor Show is one of the largest most action-packed motoring events in South Africa.

Showcasing all aspects of the motoring industry for the past 9 years, this show also offers an entertainment line-up unlike any other motoring event in SA. This action packed event will feature – drifting, aerobatic airplays, bike stunts, advanced driving experiences, track experiences, go-karts, simulators and helicopter rides. A wide range of kiddies entertainment & music will keep young and old enthralled not to mention the great prizes up for grabs!.

“I am pleased to announce that Thebe Exhibitions & Projects Group (Pty) Ltd (TEPG) has taken over ownership of the Gauteng Motor Show with immediate effect.

The past nine years I have been running the show and it has proved to be a great success. I have every confidence in the ability of Thebe Exhibitions & Projects Group to run and manage this event with the utmost professionalism and passion, as this company has a proven record of excellence in their existing exhibitions and events such as Decorex, Sports & Events Tourism Exchange (SETE), Atomic Junkies Adrenalin Fest, Business Opportunities and Franchise Expo (BOFE) and the Retirement Expo.” says Alan Cawood.

Carol Weaving, Managing Director of TEPG says the purchase of the Gauteng Motor Show is a significant addition to the group’s portfolio of consumer and trade exhibitions. “We are very pleased to be the new owners and managers of the show. As experienced and credible exhibition and event organisers we plan to take it to new heights and incorporate our Atomic Junkies Adrenalin Sports Fest to make it a one-stop extreme mototainment show.”

Gauteng Motorshow 2013, which will be held at Zwartkops Raceway on the 1st and 2nd June 2013, will be incorporating Atomic Junkies Adrenalin Sports Fest. The Atomic Junkies Stunt Show is a fresh and truly South African adrenalin fest which stages the best of SA’s Freestyle Moto-X and trial-bike riders amongst a motoring frenzy of SA’s top stunt drift drivers and amazing Spinners.

This is complimented by over 200 exhibitors who will be showcasing and selling their product and services from different brands of motor cars, sound systems, add-ons & customising to any other products that supports any aspect of the motor industry as a whole.
